

2016 Football Season – Sponsorship Information

The Central Virginia Homeschool Athletic Association (CVHAA) Disciples Football team is a non-profit organization with a primary mission to offer competitive football for homeschool and private school students that would otherwise not have the opportunity to participate on a football team. Your assistance in our endeavors would be greatly appreciated.

The Disciples were the first eleven-man homeschool, high school football team in Virginia. CVHAA-Football does not receive financial support from government agencies; however we work hard to provide students with the opportunity to play football through fund raising, donations and sponsorships. In 2015 the Disciples held our conference title: Mid-Atlantic Christian Conference (MACC) Champions, as well as won the National Champions at the National Homeschool Football (NHFA) Conference in Panama City, Florida. In 2015 the CVHAA Disciples were ranked #4312 nationally and #123 in the state of Virginia (according to MaxPreps), and were the #1 ranked homeschool team in the nation (according to NHFCS)!
